

Prozhektery: 'Administrative Entrepreneurs' and Modernization of Education in Russia from Peter the Great to Putin

Tuesday, April 5, 5:00 p.m., New Cabell 236

lecture by Igor Fedyukin

Former Vice-Minister, Ministry of Education and Science of the Russian Federation
Associate Professor and Director, Center for History Sources, National Research University – Higher School of Economics (Moscow)
Visiting Fellow, Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars (Washington, DC)

This event is organized and sponsored by the Center for Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies, and co-sponsored by the Corcoran Department of History, the Department of Slavic Languages and Literatures, and the Department of Sociology at UVa. The full list of sponsors can be found at www.virginia.edu/creees.